He believes such legislation will have to take the form of a constitutional amendment, as Secretary Mellon and Attorney General Daugherty have not been able to add to the President's last message to Congress on the subject, in which a constitutional amendment was suppressed.

tax changes and particularly to any additional taxes. It was estimated that the Federal Treasury would have a defict in the fiscal year of $600,000,000, but this bas been practically eliminated through the Budget Bureau. Administration, budges through the Budget Bureau. Administration hyders regard this as an outstanding achievement in the face of the fact that interest payments on the national debt and payments on account of past wars of pensions and for the disabled eannot be cut. Interest payments are decreasing, but those on account of the world war for disabled soldiers are mounting rapidly without a bonus.

tion and amusements amounting to $41,-000,000 decreased by $25,000,000. Taxes collected from corporations on the value of capital stock, amounting to $13,000, e00 in September reflected an increase of $2,000,000 over a year ago.
